JFK to Ask More Money for Defense

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says the United States packs military power second to none in the world and won't be fooled by the Soviets into losing this strength.

To maintain the U.S. position, he proposes:

To seek additional money for defense next year.

To keep a steady eye on U.S. strength, intelligence and commitments in relation to the capabilities of its adversaries.

To get ready for nuclear tests in the atmosphere and to conduct them if necessary.

It was in connection with nuclear test readiness that Kennedy declared Wednesday the United States is determined not to be maneuvered out of a position of power. He reminded his news conference that the Soviet Union prepared for its current series of nuclear blasts while discussing a test ban over the conference table.

"If they fooled us once, it is their fault," Kennedy said, "and they fool us twice, it is our fault."

Kennedy, who previously had signaled a rise in military expenditures, did not say how much he would ask Congress to appropriate next year. The 1961-62 defense budget, increased $6 billion since he took office in January, is about $47 billion.

This was Kennedy's 18th presidential news conference—his first in nearly a month. It ran for about a half hour and was lightened by flashes of humor. While it produced nothing especially new, it gave the President a chance to express his views on many things—from military power to recent Democratic triumphs at the polls.

He is reluctant, Kennedy said, to predict future results on the basis of past elections. But had Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York, Gov.-elect Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey and Rep.-elect Henry B. Gonzalez of Texas lost he said, "it would have been interpreted as a stunning setback for this administration." So he said he would break his rule and say their victories were a "source of satisfaction to us" and indicate voters believe both the candidates and Democratic party are committed to progress.

With a smile, he added: "I suppose some day we will lose and I will have to eat those words."

Kennedy replied with vigor when a questioner said some people regard the views of Prime Minister Nehru of India as tending to be pro-Communist.

"I know of no rational man in

Mrs. Ernest Graham Gets State-Wide Safety Prize

MRS. ERNEST GRAHAM WEDNESDAY NIGHT RECEIVED Shell Oil Co's Carol Lane Award for outstanding work in better traffic safety programs throughout Arkansas this year from Jim Griffin of New Orleans, the oil company's public relations representative. Mrs. Graham is state safety director for the State Council of Home Demonstration Clubs.

VFW Posts Meet Here Sunday

Veterans of Foreign Wars and their Auxiliaries from Districts 10 and 11 will meet at the local Hut Sunday, Nov. 12 at 2 p.m. Out-of-town posts visiting here will include: Magnolia, El Dorado, Warren and Strong.

A program will be featured during the joint meeting. Following a short business session an early dinner will be served to all. Members and their wives are invited.

School Body Plans State Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Committee for Public Schools has invited 80 leading Arkansians to a dinner here Friday night and it will seek from them ideas on how education can be improved.

Joshua K.M. Shepherd, committee chairman, said the group is about ready to move into an "affirmative program" to improve education.

Shepherd's committee was formed in 1960 to fight against Gov. Orval E. Faubus' proposed school closing constitutional amendment and it helped defeat his $60 million bond issue proposal, which was opposed by the Arkansas Education Association, last summer.

Shepherd said the committee is now ready, after two years of fighting what it considered attacks on education, to work for positive improvements in the field.

"This meeting is to get ideas, not give them," he said. "There are no urgent educational problems to be discussed."

Russian Fishing Fleet Near R. S.

CHATHAM, Mass. (AP) — A fleet of 32 Russian trawlers, with two mother ships, has been reported on a fishing bank only 21 miles off Cape Cod.

Five Chatham fishermen reported the Russian fleet when they returned to port Wednesday night after a day at sea.

The Russian trawlers have been seen for many months off the Cape, but this is the closest they have been to the mainland.

The bank where the Chatham men reported seeing the Russians is less than 50 miles from Hyannis Port where President Kennedy spent many summer weekends last year.

C. M. (Pod) Rogers, Hope Star. The Carol Lane Awards for Traffic Safety, established in 1951 by Shell Oil Co., constitute the only program of recognition and reward for women's achievements toward the preservation of lives through traffic safety projects.

Administered by the National Safety Council through a grant from Shell, they are named in honor of Shell's Woman's travel director, Carol Lane.

The contest this year drew more than 200 contestants from throughout the United States — a new record. The projects, submitted by women's organizations and individual women, are divided into three categories: entries from rural areas or cities under 25,000 population; cities of 25,000 and over; and statewide.

In each category there are three top awards as follows: First place $1,000 U. S. Saving Bond and bronze statuette symbolizing women's protective instinct; second place, $500 bond and bas-relief of statuette; third place, $250 bond and bas-relief of statuette.

Since the program was inaugurated, Louisiana has had 16 winners of either the top awards or certificates of merit. This year Louisiana has five winners of certificates.

In addition to the top awards, the judges this year awarded 68 winners certificates. This number is different each year, determined by the judges on the basis of merit.

Colleges Talk on Student Loans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Officials of Arkansas universities and colleges assembled here today for a conference on student loan provisions of the National Defense Education Act. Requirements for participation in the student loan program, changes in regulations and repayment procedures were to be discussed by Howard M. Kreitzer of Dallas, Tex., a regional representative for the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Dies Trying to Recover Lunch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A lunch box cost Michael Cuevas, 40, his life.

The employee of a printing plant ran back for it Wednesday when fire swept the building. Firemen found him suffocated in a storage room when they extinguished the $100,000 blaze at Weller Printing Co., a downtown firm.

Leftist Is to Head Ecuador Government

By THOMAS J. STONE

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Carlos Julio Arosemena takes the oath as Ecuador's new president today, promoted from the vice presidency by a constitutional right that the air force enforced by three rocket-firing jet fighters with a noisy jet raid on Quito.

The show of force Wednesday led the army-backed provisional president, Supreme Court President Camilo Gallegos Toledo, to drop his claim to the presidency vacated Tuesday by Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra.

That cleared the way for the succession of Arosemena, 42, the left-leaning vice president elected with Velasco Ibarra in June 1960. Congress already had proclaimed him president Tuesday night.

Gallegos, a political centrist, resigned within minutes after the jets fired rockets and brief machine gun bursts in swoops over the military barracks as tank-mounted soldiers held Arosemena a virtual prisoner at the legislative palace.

Though the barracks seemed to be the target, the palace was jarred by two blasts from the jets, U. S.-made T-33s. Residents swarmed into the streets as explosions echoed off the surrounding mountains. Despite all the noise, no damage or casualties were reported.

Gallegos' resignation was received at the palace with cheers and applause. The troops and tanks withdrew. Arosemena took over the presidential palace, where his opponent had holed up.

Col. Aurelio Naranjo of the defense ministry announced the Quito garrison accepted Arosemena as president in response to popular demand.

The army command had delegated the executive power to Gallegos Tuesday night, before Arosemena was released from the arrest Velasco Ibarra had put him under earlier in the day. Wednesday the army leaders refused to recognize the congressional proclamation elevating the vice president.

Fighters in New Effort to Halt Fire

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Men and machines massed today for another assault on the twin blazes in the Santa Monica Mountains, the worst fire disaster in Southern California history.

Firemen controlled flames in exclusive Bel-Air and environs Wednesday night. The fire in nearby Topanga Canyon was near containment today. Authorities reported favorable wind and humidity.

Official damage estimates: 450 homes destroyed (by actual count), all but nine in the Bel-Air area; 14,550 acres of watershed ruined; property damage perhaps in excess of $20 million.

Insurance officials estimated total insured losses may run as high as $24 million.

The situation today: Topanga Canyon, 8,400 acres charred, 250 men and 60 vehicles on the fire lines; Bel-Air-Brentwood: 5,750 acres scorched; 150 men, 20 vehicles. No immediate danger to the nearby seashore community of Pacific Palisades, although the two fires are only a half-mile apart at their nearest point.

There have been no deaths reported during the four-day haul-out. At least 150 firemen have been injured, none seriously. The fires have destroyed many homes.

74 Recruits Die in Air Catastrophe

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Seventy-seven persons, nearly all of them young Army recruits on their way to camp for basic training, perished near here Wednesday night in the flaming crash of an Imperial Airlines Constellation.

Only the pilot and the flight engineer of the big plane, which carried 74 servicemen and a crew of five, survived when it crashed into a marshy woodland ravine while attempting an emergency landing at Richmond's Byrd Field with two of its four engines dead.

Firemen played streams of foam extinguisher on the smoldering skeleton of the plane in the early morning hours.

A Civil Air Patrol officer at the scene, Lt. Col. Alfred C. Nowitsky, said identifications might never be complete.

"All the bodies were consumed that were left in the plane," Nowitsky said. "There was nothing anybody could do except contain the fire."

The pilot of the plane, Capt. Ronald Conway, 23, of West Hollywood, Fla., said he survived by climbing out a window in the cockpit after the crash. His flight engineer, W. F. Poythress, 30, of Miami, escaped through a door. Neither was critically hurt.

Conway told newsmen there were 78 recruits aboard the plane with its crew of five. Army lists of the passengers, however, showed only 74 servicemen on the aircraft, 70 of them recruits and four of them regular Army enlistees.

It was the worst plane crash in Virginia history, with fatalities far exceeding the toll of 50 in the crash of a Capital Airlines Viscount at Hatteras on Jan. 18, 1960. The last big crash near here was in 1946 when 27 perished in the crash of a Viking Air Transport, C-47 plane.

The Imperial Constellation, one of three Imperial aircraft under contract to the Army to haul recruits, had taken off from Newark, N.J., and stopped at the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton, Pa., airport and at Baltimore, Md., to pick up additional recruits destined for Ft. Jackson, S.C., for basic training.

The Army's listing showed that 22 recruits and 4 regular Army enlistees boarded the plane at Newark, 31 recruits boarded her at Wilkes-Barre-Scranton airport at Avoca, Pa., and 17 at Baltimore's Friendship International Airport.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the plane developed engine trouble about 10 miles west of Richmond and headed for Byrd Field, just east of the city limits, for an emergency landing.

Witnesses at the airport said it first flew over the field at an altitude of only 700 to 800 feet and seemed to be operating on only two engines — both on the same side of the plane.

It made one stab at a runway but, the FAA said, did not land because of trouble with its landing gear. It circled away to the south and then, on the return approach, crashed into the woods, mowing down trees as it headed for the ravine. The time was 9:24 p.m.

There were several explosions — some witnesses said as few as three, others as many as 15 — and then great walls of flame leaped upward.

A. P. Webb, a customer service agent for Eastern Air Lines, said he watched from an airport ramp as the Constellation came down.

"It started to settle into the trees southeast of the field, very slowly, as if it were stalling. I

Woman Dies in Crash at DeQueen

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Xerrie Stringfellow, 69, of El Dorado, died early today after being injured Wednesday night in a one-car accident seven miles north of here on U.S. Highway 71.

C. H. Herndon, 68, of Nashville, and his wife, 67, were hospitalized in critical condition.

State Trooper Louie Hilton said brakes on the car driven by Herndon apparently locked, throwing the car into a rock bank.

Kennedy Administration Opens Regional Meetings and Response Is Mixed

BY WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — Some of the people who attended the White House regional conference in Chicago think the basic idea is a good one.

But others feel the tone was too political or too much time was devoted to speechmaking.

Men and women from federal agencies met with state and local officials and interested citizens from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin Tuesday and Wednesday in general assemblies and smaller group meetings. They talked about the economy and problems of youth, the aged and cities.

The gathering in Chicago and simultaneous sessions in St. Louis were the first in a series that will take government spokesmen to a dozen cities this month in a show style.

Because the governmental tour was an innovation, The Associated Press asked a dozen correspondents for their reaction. Most like the idea, but a few didn't. "Superb. Very meaty," commented Mrs. Irving Ackerman, a private citizen from Chicago. "It was an experiment in trying to use the Town Hall technique on a mass scale."

Oscar Schafale, a Marion, Ill., banker, said it was "strongly political in presentation."

"It indicates more and bigger spending on the part of the government," he added, "with more inflation some time in the future."

"I think the idea is very good," said Thomas M. Checks, a school teacher in Milwaukee. "Equally important, everybody is willing to acknowledge these problems do exist rather than turn our backs on them."

His wife, a real estate broker, contended too much time was taken up with prepared speeches. "That," she added, "ends down on the time for two-way communication."

Baptists to End State Convention

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 108th annual meeting of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention headed toward an end today with most of the major business completed by the 1,500 messengers.

G. Earl Guinn, president of Louisiana College, was to make the closing sermon today.

Election of officers and adoption of a record $2,036,250 budget for 1962 highlighted Wednesday's session.

The Rev. C. Z. Holland pastor of the First Baptist Church at Jonesboro, was named president of the convention, the state's largest religious organization.

Holland was elected by secret ballot over four opponents — Dr. L. Warmath of El Dorado the Rev. H. L. Lipford of Cabot the Rev. E. E. Griener of Hamburg and the Rev. W. Harold Hick of Little Rock.

The Rev. Robert L. Smith of Pine Bluff was elected first vice president and the Rev. Eugene Webb of Childers (Craighead County) was named second vice president. The Rev. S. A. Whitlow of Little Rock was reelected secretary-treasurer.

The budget includes $1,054,600 for state causes, $633,150 for the Southern Baptist Convention, $71,000 for capital needs, $177,500 for education and special causes and $100,000 for the Bottoms Baptist Orphanage at Monticello.

Messengers also approved a board recommendation to raise $1,286,000 to bring the endowment of Ouachita Baptist College at Arkadelphia to $2 million.

Whitlow in his report to the 108th annual convention, said Baptists, need to reevaluate their missions program because of the rural to urban population shift in Arkansas.

Many smaller churches have ceased to operate, he said, because their members have moved to cities and these members have failed to identify themselves with churches in the communities to which they move.

Whitlow said Baptists must plan in advance for urban growth by buying property for churches while such property is available. He said one Little Rock area with 10,000 to 15,000 population has no Baptist Church because money to buy land was not available when land could be had.

During the morning session, Dr. W. O. Vaughn, pastor of the host Immanuel Baptist Church, said Arkansas is "getting to be known as a second Las Vegas" because of gambling at Hot Springs.

Vaughn mentioned The Vapors, a new Hot Springs night club, and said he was told "leading citizens of Arkansas" were playing slot machines and gaming at crap tables there.

"You know that's going on and we ought to do something about it," Vaughn said.

Voting Aids Party Power in Congress

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana predicted today that Democratic election victories in New Jersey, New York and Texas have enhanced prospects for pushing President Kennedy's legislative program through Congress.

Mansfield said in an interview that the results reflect "a vote of confidence in the President and will strengthen his hand" with congressmen "who are adept at understanding the handwriting on the wall."

Taking much the same tack, Democratic National Chairman John M. Buzby said the vote "demonstrates that the people strongly approve of the President's actions and legislative programs to get America on the move again."

Bailey added in a statement: "I hope that it will persuade the obstructionist Republican leadership of the Congress to adopt different tactics in the next session."

Mansfield said the victories were not due only to the efforts of the candidates, but to the "final push" given by Kennedy in New Jersey and New York City and by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who campaigned for Henry B. Gonzalez in Texas.

Gonzalez won a House seat. Kennedy appeared for Richard J. Hughes who won an upset victory in the race for governor of New Jersey and for Mayor Robert F. Wagner in his successful bid for re-election to a third term in New York City.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower also had comments Wednesday on the three races. In a statement issued at Gettysburg, Pa., he described the losses as disappointments and said they proved that manpower, money, party unity and grass roots organization are essential to victory.

Mansfield said it has been "a great autumn" for the Democratic party under Kennedy and Johnson and the election returns "clearly foreshadow the support which the American people are prepared to give the President in this decade of danger."

Among other things, Mansfield contended, the Democratic victories strengthen Kennedy's chances of passing a medical care bill for the elderly as well as an extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act.

South Africa to Put Case Before UN

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Faced with almost certain U.N. condemnation and possibly a call for a worldwide diplomatic and trade boycott, South African Foreign Minister Eric Louw goes before the U. N. special political committee today to defend his government's white supremacy policy.

Sources in his delegation said Louw would deal at length with the demand for sweeping boycotts and possible expulsion from the U. N. sponsored by 30 Asian-African countries and Cuba.

Informants said Louw would stress his government's contention that apartheid—racial segregation—is an internal matter and none of the U. N.'s business and would charge that the assembly had set up a double standard for judging actions—with the small nations serving as whipping boys.

Two rival resolutions on the South African race question have been submitted to the committee. The 31-nation draft calls for diplomatic and economic sanctions and draws the attention of the Security Council to the question of expelling South Africa from the world body.

A milder proposal put in by seven nations calls on South Africa to change its race policies and urges members to impose whatever penalties they might want under the U. N. Charter.

The Soviet bloc has thrown its support behind the 31-nation draft.

Navy Bomber Carries 11 to Death

BRUNSWICK, Maine (AP) — Eleven Navy men were killed Wednesday when their Brunswick-based Neptune bomber plunged into the ocean 100 miles off the Virginia Capes.

The plane, described as PV-2, a two-engine, long-range bomber, was taking part in an anti-submarine training mission with the carrier Lake Champlain.

Hours after contact was lost with the plane, two bodies and two life rafts and other bits of wreckage were recovered and were taken aboard the carrier. One of the rafts was inflated.

The Brunswick base reported the plane took off at 4 p.m. Tuesday for the mission, carrying fuel for 14 hours in the air.

A wide ocean search started with Navy and Coast Guard ships and planes when the Neptune failed to return.

The Brunswick Naval Air Station said Lt. Cmdr. Phillip S. Callahan, 36, of Memphis, Tenn., was the pilot and commander on the bomber.

Others aboard were: Lt. (j.g.) Robert J. Miller, 23, New Hyde Park, N. Y.; Lt. (j.g.) William G. McLane, 22, Lake Placid, N. Y.; Lt. (j.g.) Edmund J. McGrath, 24, Chicago.

Verdict Held Up in School Whipping

MALVERN, Ark. (AP)—A ruling in an assault and battery case against Roy Ray Watson, Bismarck school superintendent who is charged with spanking a student, won't be delivered until a damage suit filed against Watson by the student's father is decided.

Municipal Judge Wendell O. Edperson said Wednesday he won't issue a decision in the assault case because he does not want to prejudge the case of either party in the $11,000 damage suit which is pending in Hot Spring Circuit Court.

The plaintiff in both cases is C. E. Allen of near Bismarck, who saw it disappear behind the trees. "Suddenly the horizon lit up. After the pinkish glow died down, a great ball of flames came up."

J. F. Green, a member of the Eastover Garden Fire Department—one of the first rescue units to reach the scene—said, "the woods were lit up" by the flames.

"I walked back into the woods. When I got near the plane, I saw two crew members wandering around (Conway and Poythress). We were about 50 yards from the plane when someone went up and brought them out of the woods. The whole fuselage was on fire. I could see people in the plane."

Bobby Joe Allen, on Oct. 10, contends Watson spanked his son. Watson has had no comment.

Ike to Help JFK With Overseas Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has asked former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to head a revamped "people-to-people" organization, Eisenhower says he will be delighted to serve.

The announcement that Kennedy had enlisted his predecessor's services for the first time was made by Kennedy at his news conference Wednesday.

The President's statement included a cordial reference to Eisenhower, who just recently was coupling his support for Republican candidates in several elections with jobs at aspects of the Kennedy administration's record.

The people-to-people program was conceived by Eisenhower in 1956 as a vast effort to establish closer personal contacts between Americans of all occupations and interests and their opposite numbers in other countries.

So difficult was the terrain at the crash scene that the first piece of fire equipment could not reach the wreckage until 10:45 p.m., more than an hour after the crash. One pumper truck got stuck.

A clear path through the woods wasn't carved out until armored cars of the Virginia National Guard's 113rd Reconnaissance Squadron slugged their way through the underbrush and mud.

Thousands of curiosity seekers walked to the scene, hampering rescue work. Police roped them off from the area and eventually used fierce police dogs to hold back the throng.

On heavily traveled U. S. 60, nearest major highway, hundreds of cars produced a tremendous traffic jam which held up ambulances rushing to the crash site. Police needed hours to unsmother the traffic jam blocking the highway.

State Police at first identified the plane, erroneously as an Eastern Air Lines Constellation. The Imperial Airlines has headquarters in Miami and makes unscheduled flights five or six times weekly carrying recruits to Army stations.

Imperial Airlines was known as of its planes crashed near Centuria, Calif., killing two crew Regina Airlines in 1953, when one members and 19 soldiers en route to McChord Air Force Base.

Elizabeth Leaves for Ghana Visit

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II left by air for Ghana today to begin a 12-day state visit that many of her subjects had feared might place her in personal peril.

With her husband, Prince Philip, the 35-year-old monarch left aboard a special jetliner for the 3,600-mile journey to Accra, Armed Scotland Yard guards went with her.

The visit was in doubt until Wednesday while the government pondered whether the queen would be safe in Britain's former West African colony. Four bomb explosions in Accra and other signs of political opposition to the dictatorial regime of President Kwame Nkrumah aroused fears, in the press, and Parliament that the queen might herself be a target for demonstrators.

But Prime Minister Macmillan's government decided it was safe to let the visit go on.

The queen and Philip will tour Ghana until Nov. 20, then board the Royal yacht Britannia for visits to Liberia, Sierra Leone and Gambia. The queen will fly home from Dakar Dec. 6, while her husband will go to Dar-es-Salaam for ceremonies marking the independence of Tanganyika, which Britain has administered under a U.N. trusteeship.

Only United Nations representatives, church leaders and diplomats can cross freely between the Jordan and Israel sectors of Jerusalem.

bers in countries all over the world.

That year an organization was formed to carry out the program. It was dissolved in June 1958, but the United States Information Agency was to help its various committees to continue functioning. USIA continues to administer the program.

Eisenhower issued a statement at Gettysburg, Pa., saying he would go to Kansas City to discuss the program. The new organization has been incorporated under the laws of Missouri, with headquarters in Kansas City.

The new organization, USIA said, was made possible through financial and other assistance provided by Hallmark Foundation.

Willisville FMA Chapter Attend Magnolia Meeting

Recently 13 girls of the Willisville FMA chapter and a chapter mother, Mrs. Paul Cooper, went to the sub-federation meeting at Magnolia held in the Southern State auditorium. There were 836 girls representing FMA chapters in this district.

Janice Cooper of the Willisville Chapter presided over the meeting. The devotion was by the El Dorado Chapter on building better FHA homes. Four boys from Fairview entertained the girls with instrumentals and popular songs Miss Ellen Kennedy of Laneburg played the accordion. A helpful talk was given by Mr. Lynn of the Lynn Charm School, on grooming.

The meeting was dismissed with the FHA Creed and song.

"There's too much violence in your shows! If you don't clean them up the government will!"

JFK to Ask

The United States who holds that view," Kennedy asserted. Nehru is in Washington for talks with the President.

In reference to attempts to assure business leaders he is not anti-business, Kennedy said, "Well, if I stop them saying we are anti-business we are supposed to cease enforcing the antitrust law, I suppose the cause is lost." He added there can be "no long-range hostility" between business and government but wound up: "Whether I can convince them or not, I don't know."

On other subjects, Kennedy had this to say:

News Conferences—Asked why he doesn't meet the press more often, Kennedy said the public interest justified his present schedule because most obvious topics deal with sensitive foreign policy. He'll hold conferences nearly every week after Congress reconvenes, he said, and wouldn't object to several a week if he considered them in the public interest at the time.

Eisenhower — Kennedy announced former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had agreed to serve as board chairman of a new "People to People" organization designed to promote contacts with citizens of other nations. The original program was established under Eisenhower in 1958.

South Viet Nam — Kennedy barred inquiries on what help the United States plans to extend to the beleaguered Southeast Asian country until both governments can review findings of a survey mission headed by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the President's military adviser.

Fallout — Nuclear testing must be approached "with the greatest caution and hesitancy" because of the potential hazard from fallout, Kennedy said, but the United States must balance this with its responsibility to the Free World.

Berlin—Kennedy said it would be "wholly wrong" to suggest that West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer seeks to rearm his country in order to wreak revenge for defeats in war. He termed Adenauer's visit to Washington later this month "of vital importance" in coping with the East-West crisis in Europe.

Trade—The United States must begin reshaping its trade policies now to deal with the European Common Market, which will "present us with major economic challenges, and I hope opportunities," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said talks last week among U.S. Cabinet and Japanese officials "succeeded in extending the concept of the American-Japanese partnership to the economic and trade field."

Soviet-Chinese Rift—The world can best judge differences between the two Communist giants by their actions, the President said. What really counts, he added, are threats posed to the Free World.

Draft Gets 47 of Highway Employees

LITTLE ROCK (AP) Highway Director F. R. Oliver said Wednesday the Highway Department has lost 47 male employees to military services during the current military buildup. Oliver said he had not kept track of how many female employees had resigned to follow their husbands to duty stations.

Joe Watkins, club guests.

High scorer was Mrs. Thad Hawkins. Mrs. Ralph Emerson was second high and the duce prize went to Mrs. Bob Kellam. Dessert was served with coffee or tea.

Coming and Going

Mrs. H. H. Darnell has returned to her home in Texarkana after a three weeks visit with her brother, Ciri Stuart and Mrs. Stuart.

In the $100,000-and-up class in the movie colony known as the Hollywood Hills section. Thousands of persons fled from homes and schools.

In the movie colony, flames destroyed the homes of Burt Lancaster, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Joe E. Brown, Joan Fontaine, producer Walter Wanger and composer Lukas Foss. Among the evacuees: former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who returned Tuesday to his rented home in Brentwood.

Flames and smoke from the mountains still were visible for miles. Associated Press reported Charles Maher, who surveyed the damage in the Bel-Air section, described the scene: "It looked like a vast graveyard of mansions. In many places all that remained were chimneys, standing like smoking tombstones over piles of ashes."

Cause of the outbreak has not been determined. The blazes began Monday near the crest of the Santa Monica range—extending west to the sea from Hollywood—and swept into heavily populated areas north of Sunset Boulevard.

and has urged that South Africa be expelled, but most members oppose such a drastic step, contending it would do more harm than good.

The United States and Britain have come out against any boycott, but both have called for a denunciation of the republic's race policies.

Elsewhere in the U. N. the assembly by a 71-11 vote Wednesday night adopted a U.S.-British resolution calling for immediate resumption of East-West negotiations on a nuclear test ban treaty. Fifteen nations abstained, and six were absent. The Soviet Union denounced the negotiations, saying the talks would never be held.

To Cruise on Arkansas River

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — About 50 members of the Arkansas River Yacht Club of Little Rock will take a 130-mile roundtrip from De Valls Bluff to Newport Saturday and Sunday as part of a Civil Defense water evacuation and rescue project.

Sonic Boom Alert Given This Area

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Air Force has issued two sonic boom alerts for today. The warnings are for the corridor between 100 miles northeast of Little Rock to Matagorda, Tex., from 10:43 to 11:13 a.m.; and from Little Rock to Shreveport between 9:36 and 9:40 a.m.

350 Dropped by Federal Agency

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has dropped 350 foreign aid employees from the payroll in setting up the new Agency for International Development. The dismissed employees had worked for the International Cooperation Administration which went out of business when the new agency was created. Many of those dismissed foreign aid officials said Wednesday, were specialists whose specialty no longer is needed. Layoff notices were sent out last Friday.

Curtis No. 1 Rusher in AIC Play

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Bill Curtis, Arkansas Tech's yard-hungry halfback, apparently has the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference's individual rushing title sewed up.

With two games to play, Curtis has 669 yards, 167 more than his closest competitor, Pedro Ferguson of State Teachers. Southern State's David Alpe third with 486 yards, behind Ferguson's 502.

Teachers' Ted McConaughy, the leader as recently as a month ago, dropped to fourth with 477 yards.

Figures released by Commissioner Cliff Shaw show Curtis also leads in total offense, but Southern State quarterback Johnny Shofner is within firing range in this department with 600 yards rushing and passing.

Ouachita fullback Robert McGlothlin has 8 touchdowns and 13 conversions for the scoring lead at 61 points.

Only about 6,000 stars are bright enough and near enough to be seen on the earth without an aid to vision.

Bobkittens Seek 21st Here Tonight

By VINCE POSTER

The Hope Bobkittens, celebrating Homecoming, will be seeking their 21st consecutive win as they close their season with Camden tonight at Hammond Stadium. A win tonight would give the Kittens a record of three consecutive undefeated seasons.

Camden, who the Kittens previously defeated 12-7, is the toughest team on the Hope schedule. In the earlier victory over them this season, Camden was left on the three yard line at the buzzer, trailing only five points. That has been the only defeat for the visitors and they will most certainly be seeking revenge.

Other victories of Coach Billy Mitchell's Bobkittens have come over Texarkana, Prescott, Arkadelphia, Nashville and Magnolia. John Gaines and Janet Allen will reign tonight as the Kittens' Homecoming Queens and their naiders are: Vicki Connell, Glena Jolly, Cissie Ellis, Karen Cobb, Myrle Cox, Ann Watkins, Gail Cook, Poloda Glanton, Sharon Farris, Linda O'Steen, Susie Gray, Carla Tuttle, Gail Medders, Margie Herndon, Martha Rice and Annette Hatfield.

The Hope and Camden 7th and 8th grade squads will meet at 6:30 p.m., followed by the Homecoming activities, followed by the all important junior game. All are urged to come back these Kittens, and cheer them on to their third straight undefeated season.

The starting lineup includes: LE, Sprague; LT, Guerin and Prather; LG, Ball; C, Willis; RG, Still; RT, McMahon; RE, Johnson and Beard; QB, Jordan; LH, McNabb; RH, Waller and FB, Samuels.

Titans to Face Fight for Title

NEW YORK (AP) - The New York Titans, thought to be shooting for the American Football League's Eastern Division title only three weeks ago, suddenly found today that they are going to have to really scramble.

The Titans, now third, play the Oakland Raiders here Saturday night, after a disheartening road trip during which they lost two of three games.

Boston (5-5-1) and Houston (4-5-1) are ahead of New York. Even if injured flanker back Don Maynard, their ace pass catcher returns to top form, the big problem still is the schedule.

"Look at it this way," says General Manager Steve Sebo, "the big story in the battle for the Eastern title is wound up right in that schedule. Boston is in a great spot, with only one more game against a team from the division.

"That means that while we must play Houston twice, and Buffalo again, Boston can sit back and watch the two of us kill off one another." Also the Patriots have two games left with Oakland (2-6), one with Denver and one with San Diego, plus their Houston encounter.

The Boston-Houston game is on tap this week at Houston. San Diego visits Denver and Dallas entertains Buffalo in other AFL activity.

Pittsburgh Is Still College No. 1 Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Powerful Pittsburgh of Kansas, which has yielded only seven points and scored 265 while compiling an eight-game winning streak, continues to set the pace in 'The Associated Press' small-college football poll this week.

Pittsburgh, 35-0 conqueror of Emporia (Kan.) State last Saturday, collected 68 points on three votes for first place, four for second and one for ninth in the balloting by a select panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Baldwin-Wallace, unbeaten in seven games, remained in the runner-up position with 57 points followed by Southeast Louisiana 53 points and Northern Michigan 49.

The top ten (points figured on a basis of 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 from first through tenth places (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Pittsburgh (Kan.) (3) 68
2. Baldwin-Wallace (1) 57
3. Southeast Louisiana (2) 53
4. Northern Michigan 49
5. Fresno State 42
6. Florida A&M 39
7. Whittier (Calif.) 38
8. Lehigh 30
9. Linfield (1) 24
10. Lenoir Rhyne (1) 20

The Lakers also came from behind to whip the Hawks and strengthen their hold on first place in the Western Division.

Jerry West and Elgin Baylor ruled the Lakers in a second-half attack that wiped out a 13-point St. Louis lead. West finished with 42 points and Baylor with 39.

The Knicks piled up a 39-20 first quarter lead against Chicago and had an easy time ending their losing streak. Richie Guerin, with 33 points, and Johnny Green, with 30, sparked the New Yorkers.

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Here is a fishing forecast from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission:

Lake Norfolk: Black bass fair on crayfish, jigs, eels and plastic worms. White bass fair at night on minnows. Crappie fair trolling on minnows and artificial bait.

Lake Hamilton: Clear and high. Bass fair to good on artificial bait. Crappie fair to good on minnows.

Lake Maumelle: Water clear and two feet low. All fishing poor. Lake Greeson: No report.

Augsborg, 2,000-year-old Roman city in the Bavarian Alps, encompasses the Fuggerei said to be the oldest communal settlement in the world.

Trio Favored in Baumont Tournament

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Doug Sanders, Jay Hebert and Fred Hawkins were among the favorites today as a field of 124, 10 of them amateurs, moved out in the $20,000 Beaumont Invitational Golf Tournament.

In Beaumont's first tournament along the PGA trail in 20 years, the winner will bag $2,800 and if it's Sanders, he can start moving up on the top money-winners of golf.

Gary Player leads with $84,540; 45 and Arnold Palmer is second with $57,732.92. They are not playing in the tournament here. Sanders is third with $53,513.23.

Citadel Lost More Yards Than GainedBy JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Citadel's 1961 Southern Conference football champions allowed more yards than it gained.

The Bulldogs are second in the conference in total offense with an average gain of 254.9—and last in total defense with a 292.9 mark. A good part of the credit must go to quarterback Bill Whaley, who was the key to the Cadets' 14-8 title clinching victory last Saturday over Virginia Military.

He passed or ran on 11 of the 13 plays The Citadel used to push over the winning score, winding it up with a 22-yard touchdown pass to Henry Mura. In all, he completed 10 of 16 passes for 150 yards. He ran for an additional 28 to account for all but 79 yards of the Cadets' 257 total offense.

Last week Whaley was weakened by a cold and The Citadel's best runner, Early Eastburn, suffered from a neck injury. After two days of intensive work this week for the game against Florida State, Coach Eddie Teague breathed a sigh of relief.

"We've had injuries to key players all season, but it's good to end our contact work with everybody shipshape. We'll need all the help we can muster against Florida State."

That's the way Baylor feels about its upcoming game against Texas, the nation's No. 1 team. The Bears have quarterback Bobby Fry, halfback Ronnie Goodwin and Dalton Hoffman still on the sidelines with injuries. Texas is missing its top fullback, Ray Poage.

Halfback Jim Cairns of Minnesota remains doubtful for Saturday's game against Iowa and another halfback Bill Monsey, the hero of last week's upset of Michigan State, is limping. Iowa allowed only University President Dr. Virgil M. Hancher and Athletic Director Forest Evashevski to view its top-secret practice sessions.

Missouri, which meets Oklahoma have the defensive halfback, Norm Beal ready for action. Notre Dame moved senior Roger Wilke to first-team tackle in place of Bob Bill as the Irish wound up heavy work for Saturday's game at Pittsburgh.

Hebert had a 6-under-par 63 Wednesday in leading the pros in a pro-amateur.

The tournament runs through Sunday.

TIMBERS AND FAITH—A new church, containing 36,000 board feet of wood salvaged from three log-train trestles, is admired by four of the men who helped build it near Enumclaw, Wash., about 30 miles east of Tacoma. The wood was in excellent shape after 30 years of exposure.

McLeod, ex Ambassador, Dies at 47

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—R. Scott McLeod, 47, a former newspaperman who rose in government service to become ambassador to Ireland in the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration, died Tuesday night.

McLeod, general counsel to the Republican members of the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee since last January, suffered a heart attack at his home in Concord, near Concord, in the morning.

McLeod's nomination to be ambassador stirred a Senate controversy in May, 1957. Democrats criticized his record as State Department security chief and Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., called him a "symbol of the witch hunter" of 1953 and 1954.

Clark condemned McLeod's handling of security clearance of State Department and foreign service officers.

Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H., for whom McLeod had worked, and former Sen. William Knowland, R-Calif., who was then the Senate Republican leader, came to McLeod's defense. Knowland quoted Eisenhower as saying he had full confidence in the nominee and Bridges said McLeod was the victim of a "smear campaign."

The Senate voted 54-22 to reject nomination to return the nomination to its Foreign Relations Committee for further inquiry and confirmed the nomination 60-20 on May 9, 1957.

McLeod was born in Davenport, Iowa, and was a reporter on the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Gazette, until he became an agent for the FBI.

He resigned from the ambassadorship last January when President Kennedy took office.

He Charges Sellers Pick School Texts

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Too many decisions about what should be taught in the public schools are being left to the judgment of traveling book salesmen, a Stanford University professor said today.

Prof. H. Thomas James said, "If what comes out is as insipid as television, it is because the processes governing the decision are similar."

James, in a prepared address opening the annual meeting of the Council of Chief State School Officers, took indirect note of the adoption of the 19th-century McGuffey Readers by the Twin Lakes, Wis., School Board.

"My own preference, if we are offered a choice between Dick and Jane (a popular elementary school reader) and the McGuffey Readers," he said, "is to refuse."

2 Dead, 16 Hurt in Ship Explosion

By CHARLES H. GREEN

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Two ships carrying oil and chemicals collided and burst into flames Tuesday night in the Houston Ship Channel in Galveston Bay.

A Coast Guard spokesman said two men were killed and 16 others injured. Eight men still were missing at mid-morning.

Agents for the vessels indicated 98 persons were aboard when the ships collided 35 miles southeast of Houston. The 50-mile-long waterway runs between the Gulf of Mexico and Houston.

The bows of the M.S. Berean, a 9,003-ton Norwegian tanker, and the 494-foot Union Reliance, a Nationalist Chinese freighter, rammed each other. The cause had not been determined. The weather was clear.

Coast Guard officials said both of the dead were crewmen aboard the Union Reliance.

All the injured and missing also were from the Union Reliance. The Berean, launched earlier this year, was bound for Houston. The Union Reliance had left Port Houston six hours before the collision bound for New Orleans.

The Berean burned five hours. A skeleton crew then moved the ship under its own power to Bolivar Roads near the port of Galveston.

The Union Reliance was almost destroyed by the fire, which was allowed to burn itself out.

The Coast Guard said it would start an inquiry to determine the cause of the collision.

The tanker carried explosive chemicals, solvents and animal fats. The freighter had oil in barrels on her deck and lumber in the holds.

Actor Murphy's 25th Citation

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Audie L. Murphy, whose 24 prior decorations included the Medal of Honor, now has the Civilian Service Medal as well.

The Army's highest civilian honor was bestowed Tuesday night for Murphy's contribution to an Army film concerned with the missile program.

The White House was designed by Irish architect James Hoban who won a public competition for the job — a $500 prize.

the choice and go to work on a new one."

"The Council of Chief State School Officers is an organization of state commissioners and superintendents of education from all 50 states and five U. S. territories. James suggested the council should create a national forum to tackle the problem of reading instruction in the public schools.

The forum, he said, should include reading specialists, school librarians in the humanities, teachers and text book publishers.

Bid Opened on Umpire, Dierks Road

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Highway Commission opened bids today on 13 road and bridge jobs.

Apparent low bids were unofficially totaled at $3,462,979.

Largest job is for reconstruction of 5.5 miles of Highway 167 between Sheridan and Cross Roads in Grant County.

Ben M. Hogan & Co., Little Rock, was apparent low with a proposal of $705,742.

Other jobs, by counties, with apparent low bidders and their bids are:

Ashley — Two bridges east of Ouachita River on Highway 82 between Crossett and Strong; R. N. Reynolds & Sons, Construction Co., Camden, $68,225.

Howard — 3.8 miles of surfacing, one new bridge and remodeling on bridge on Highway 4 from the U.S. No. 70 junction near Dierks toward Umpire; W. C. Burrow Co., Malvern, and Schmeckenbecher Bros. Sweet Home, joint bid of $231,884.

Lafayette — 5.5 miles of surfacing on Highway 160 from Bradley toward Walker Creek; J. Lester Booker Co., Little Rock, $161,038.

Crawford — 1.4 miles of widening and resurfacing on Highway 64 in Van Buren; Forsgren Bros., Fort Smith, $223,358.

Franklin — 4.2 miles of surfacing and remodeling one bridge on Highway 219 from Ozark north. Gillioz Co., Monette, Mo., $215,111.
Pulaski — Lighting facilities on the Little Rock-North Little Rock freeway bridge and approaches. L. E. Myers Co., Overland, Mo., $44,030.

Hot Spring — Bridge and approaches across Ouachita River on Interstate No. 30 near Malvern; W. R. Fairchild Construction Co., Farmerville, La., $620,419.

Grant — 3.5 miles of construction on Highway 46 in three separate sections between Leola and Sheridan; John M. Smith, Little Rock, $297,818.

Bradley — Approximately 2.3 miles of surfacing on Highway 4 from the Highway 4 junction to a county road junction; S. M. Dixon Construction Co., Warren, $210,717.

Washington — 4-mile of widening and resurfacing on Highway 71 in Fayetteville; Anchor Construction Co., Tulsa, $89,490.

Randolph — 7.6 miles of reconstruction on Highway 67 between the Lawrence County line and Pochontas; Ben M. Hogan & Co., $417,204.

Mississippi — Construction of three new bridges on Highway 77 between the Crittenden County line and the Highway 14 junction; W. L. Sharp Contracting Co., Memphis, $77,943.

2 Are Named to Law Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus appointed Herbert McAdams of Jonesboro and

Louis L. Ramsay of Pine Bluff to the state Commission on Uniform State Laws today.

Robert A. Loflar, a law professor at the University of Arkansas, was reappointed.

McAdams succeeds Joe C. Barrett of Jonesboro and Ramsay replaces William Nash of Little Rock.

Pennsylvania and Central Plan Merger

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads formally agreed today to press ahead "as rapidly as possible" with merger plans to form what would be the world's largest railroad system.

The announcement followed coordinated board meetings, with Penn directors meeting in Philadelphia and Central directors here.

A joint application will be filed promptly with the Interstate Commerce Commission as soon as a satisfactory basis for merger has been agreed upon, it said.

"The giant railroads said economic and competitive conditions have worsened appreciably" since previous consolidation talks were broken off in January 1959, and that both expect to end 1961 in the red.

"Time to assure maintenance of rail transportation as private enterprise is running out," the roads said.

"We have no choice but to try every means at hand to help our companies better their ability to compete more effectively in the transportation field, and to avoid government ownership."

Chemistry to Improve Cotton Sale

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chemical finishing may lead to warmer cotton fabrics and result in an annual 750,000 bale increase in cotton consumption, a Department of Agriculture official said today.

The official, Dr. C. H. Fisher, director of the department's Southern Utilization Research and Development Division at New Orleans, made the predictions in an address prepared for the 10th annual Chemical Finishing Conference sponsored by the National Cotton Council.

Noting progress already made in chemical finishing to produce stretch cottons, Dr. Fisher said:

"Work on the development of warm cotton fabrics with... durable, low-weight bulk is well under way in several laboratories and it should not be very long before these new fabrics will become commercial realities."

This improved cotton could result in a 750,000 bale increase for such items as robes, coats, jackets, suits, skirts, dresses, sweaters, and blankets he said.

He Works on His 102nd Birthday

PLATTSBURG, Mo. (AP)—Albert R. Alexander came to work as usual today, his birthday.

So did a lot of other people but few of them are 102 years old and still holding public office.

Alexander is serving his third four-year term as Clinton County probate judge and ex-officio magistrate.

His office was filled with flowers and cards as friends remembered him on his birthday. But the judge didn't shorten his usual 8-to-5 hours for the occasion.

At midmorning he was busy pounding away on his typewriter. He uses a modified hunt-and-peck system.

He drives his car to work every day, but if the machine won't start he just steps out and walks the mile and a half to the courthouse.

Occasionally in the summer he'll show up a little late with the explanation that he had to mow his yard.

Alexander still has no plans for retirement or plans to run for a fourth term. He is a Democrat.

"Whether I run or not in 1962," he said, "will depend upon what our good people want me to do at that time."

Life In Arkansas

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Staff Writer

Little James Kendall Million was simply fulfilling a family tradition when he was born at Pocahontas on Halloween.

His mother, Mrs. H. G. Million, his grandfather, Doyle Ward, and an uncle, Jamie Ward of West Memphis, all were born on Halloween.

Speaking of Halloween, judges in a costume contest at Pocahontas, were surprised when a 77-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Mayes, walked off with third prize.

One Fort Smith man wasn't impressed when President Kennedy stopped over in the border city on his way to a road dedication in Oklahoma.

Observing the crowd which gathered to greet Kennedy at the airport, Paul Foster, 63, remarked "You'd think they'd never seen Governor Faubus before."

Faubus was one of a host of Arkansas dignitaries who greeted the President.

Mary Louise Wright, columnist for the Stuttgart Daily Leader, says she overheard a conversation the other day which ended this way:

One woman: "Pearl, who do you reckon has the worst husband, you or I?"

Pearl: "I don't dare guess. Things are bad enough without our starting a contest."

Consider the plight of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Haile who were en route to the Texas A&M game in Fayetteville last week only to discover at Harrison they had left their tickets at home in Newport.

Everything worked out, though. They telephoned a friend, Bill Duncan, who found the tickets and sent them along by Brooks Brown, who flew to the game Saturday afternoon.

Haile met Brown at the airport, got the tickets and presumably enjoyed the Razorbacks' 15-8 eleventh hour victory.

A Wynne High School football player went to Little Rock a few weeks ago to see the Razorbacks play.

In the capital city, he had occasion to help a little old lady with her baggage. Noting his letter sweater with a big "W," she asked, "Do you play football?"

When he said yes, she said, "Oh, I'll bet you play for Ouachita (pronounced Wash-ita), don't you?"

Mrs. Kennedy Postpones India Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced today that Jacqueline Kennedy has decided to postpone her trip to India and Pakistan until January.

It was announced only last week that she would leave about Nov. 20 for a personal and private visit to the two countries.

But White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced today the trip would be delayed so that the First Lady could make a more leisurely visit than originally planned.

Kenya Native Egged by Londoners

LONDON (AP)—Militant British imperialists threw eggs at Jomo Kenyatta, Kenya nationalist leader, today as he arrived at the Colonial Office for talks on the African colony's future and again as he left.

An egg that hit Kenyatta's rain-coated right arm when he arrived was fresh. The one that splattered at his feet as he left two hours later was rotten.

Kenyatta, the president of the Kenya African National Union is discussing a new constitution for the colony with Colonial Secretary Reginald Maudling.

May Send U. S. Youths to Japan

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer Tuesday conveyed to Foreign Minister Zenaro Kosaka a Peace Corps offer to send 100 young American college graduates to Japan to teach English. Kosaka said he would discuss the offer with Japanese officials.

to do for the city, remarked, "Golly, if I thought he could really do it, I'd vote for him myself."

Haines also reports that a Blytheville freshman wrote home from the university that he felt his biggest first year challenge would be golf.

"This might be much better than 'first sounds,'" remarks Haines. "It could indicate a high degree of accomplishment in the classroom, meaning that the challenge there will not equal the challenge on the golf course where the student does not excel."

2 Soldiers to Die for 7 Murders

RUSSELL, Kan. (AP)—Two young soldiers who boasted of killing seven persons in a cross-country rampage of robbery and murder have been condemned to hang for killing a Kansas railroad man, their sixth victim.

James Douglas Latham, 19, of Mauriceville, Tex.; and George Ronald York, 18, of Jacksonville, Fla., did not flinch as they heard the verdict, Tuesday.

"We thought we were doing them a favor by putting them out of their miseries in this rat race," York said when he and Latham were captured near Grantsville, Utah, last June 10.

"I hate the world," said Latham.

The all-male jury convicted them of first-degree murder for the shooting of Otto E. Ziegler, 62, of Oakley, Kan., June 9. Ziegler was robbed of $51.

Returning their verdict after deliberating six hours and 45 minutes, the jurors rejected defense contentions that the youths are insane and too young to be executed. The jury could have sentenced them to life imprisonment.

York and Latham were tried only for Ziegler's death, but in signed statements they also admitted slayings in Florida, Tennessee, Illinois and Colorado.

Their crime spree began May 24 when they broke out of the Army stockade at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Student Dies of Fall at University

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—L. C. Vaughan Jr., 18, injured in a nine-story plunge from a University of Arkansas dormitory window on Oct. 31, died in Washington County Hospital Tuesday night.

The Waco, Tex., engineering student had been despondent, Sheriff Hollis Spencer said, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Vaughan Sr., had been called to take him home.

No official ruling has been made as to whether Vaughan jumped or fell. A window in the ninth-floor dormitory lounge was broken.

Siloam Springs Bypass to Open

SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus will cut a ribbon opening a three-mile bypass of State Highway 68 around Siloam Springs on Nov. 17.

He will be assisted by Rep. Ed Edmondson, D-Okla., brother of Oklahoma Gov. Howard J. Edmondson.

The new highway connects Arkansas 68 with Oklahoma State Highway 33.

Bargaining Vote Set at Conway

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has set Nov. 21 for a vote on whether the International Association of Machinists shall be bargaining agents for employees of the Custom-made Products Corp.

Some 200 employees of the refrigerated cabinet producing company are eligible to vote.

Dr. Gardner Dies at Russellville

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Dr. Lacurgus Gardner, a Russellville eye specialist the past 35 years and a past president of the Arkansas Medical Society died unexpectedly of a heart attack at his home today. He was 77.

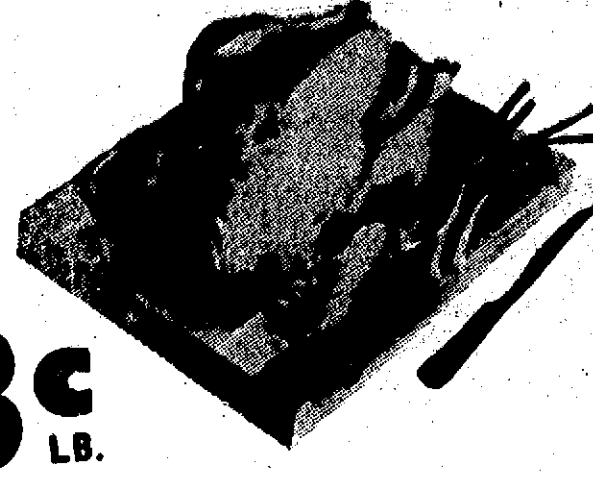

He formerly practiced medicine in Atkins and Fort Smith before moving to Russellville.

THE TALL CORN—One hundred bushels of corn an acre are responsible for the smiles on Chester Spray Jr., left, and his brother Carl of Douglas County, Kan., as they watch part of their huge crop pour into a truck. The yield of 100 bushels an acre is about double the average corn crop level for the county. Beating this record, however, is Carl Hess, right, of Knox County, Ind., who examines an ear of the fine hybrid corn that brought him a championship yield of 168 bushels an acre. Record American corn yield in a supervised contest is 308 bushels an acre, grown in Mississippi. Nikita Khrushchev has recently claimed that Russian farmers have surpassed Americans. The One Soviet farm harvested 120 bushels an acre. The Soviet leader boasted that this beat the 102-bushel yield of Roswell Garst, Coon Rapids, Iowa, corn developer, whose farm Khrushchev visited in 1959. The U.S. produces about 4.5 billion bushels a year, half the world's production. U.S.S.R. raises from 200 to 600 million a year.

Coffee's Fragrance Heralds Thanksgiving Chiffon Pie

At the start of the Thanksgiving feast, the golden-brown turkey is the centerpiece. But once the turkey has been savored, our thoughts turn to dessert. When coffee's aroma drifts from the kitchen, we know dessert isn't far away.

Thanksgiving would not be quite so festive without a delectable, homemade pie. We can't think of a more beautiful or more delicious one than this Harvest Home Chiffon Pie. In the light, delicious filling, coffee and spices add their subtle flavors to the pumpkin. Chopped pecans and whipped cream ring the edge.

To accompany the pie, serve coffee, a hot, fresh, fragrant pot. Then start another potful brewing right away to keep everybody happy during the long hours of talk that follow the last bite of pie.

Chapter XXXIV

Don Julio said, "Mr. Beecher insists there is a witness to support his accusations."

"Bah! You think I am to be joked with like a child?" Don Willie drew himself to full height. "This person who wants to say something against me, where is he? Bring him to me."

"The person is Ise Sherman."

"What is this? What can Ise know of these things?"

"When we find her, we will ask her."

Don Willie raised his hands, then let them fall hopelessly to his sides. "When you find her! You don't need bloodhounds and policemen to find the child. It is a simple matter. You walk down the hallway and knock on the door of her room. That is all."

Don Julio turned and looked at Beecher. The cool damp air blew softly through the room, stirring heavy close silence. Beecher heard the flames in the fireplace. In the uneven stroke of his heart.

"One question, please," Don Julio said mildly. "She has been here all week?"

"Yes of course. Where else would she be?"

"She has been ill? I don't remember seeing her in the village."

"Yes, she has a coldness in her head, a head cold. This is something criminal?"

"Please!" Don Julio looked pained. "And she is feeling better now?"

Don Willie shook his finger at the policeman, his cheeks flushing with anger. "We will go to the bottom of this now. You don't take my word, eh?" Wheeling about he took a slim black book from the mantelpiece and thrust it angrily at Don Julio. "There! Examine it! See if she has left the country."

Don Willie had made his first mistake, Beecher decided; he should have waited for Don Julio to ask him for the passport. And THIEFPROOF—Money bag snatchers of the future are due for a surprise if this case, shown in London, comes into universal use. Its workings: Thief snatches case; bank messenger's thumb pressure is removed from handle, setting in motion the "surprises." Handle depresses to hold thief's hand in vise-like grip; three steel telescopic arms, each six feet long, shoot out in different directions, making it impossible for car getaway, and an automatic whistle sounds off loudly to summon the police.

away from him, her body stiff and rigid within Don Willie's arm, and he saw the tendons rising cruelly in her slender throat.

"You're flying right back into your cage, Ise," he said gently. "You don't have to. Don't you remember what it was like to be free?"

"Please," she said, and her voice was like that of someone straining on a rack. "I-I must go."

"Yes!" Don Willie said sharply. "We have had enough."

She slipped from his arms, the firelight gleaming on her slim bare legs, and walked swiftly to the doorway, her head high and her hands clinched tightly at her sides. When she turned into the hallway they could hear her high heels clicking rapidly on the marble floor, their sound fading toward the rear of the villa. But the tempo of her footsteps quickened suddenly; she was running then, Beecher knew, running frantically away from him. A door slammed heavily shutting off the sharp clatter of her steps, and silence settled in the house.

Don Julio gave Don Willie a soft, smiling salute. "Good night. You must forgive this intrusion."

Autos and Appliances Aid Steel

NEW YORK (UPI)—Economist A. W. Zelonek thinks steel production in 1962 should be given a considerable stimulus by the expected increase in auto production and a substantial betterment in the home appliance and entertainment fields.

Production for the first half should run at an annual rate of between 115 and 120 million tons with increased buying of steel developing within the next six months, especially in view of the fear of another strike in mid-1962, he figures.

International Statistical Bureau, Inc., says the action of the market during the past week was soft, smiling salute. "Good night. You must forgive this intrusion."

West Flailed by Reds, Asia Africa Bloc

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet bloc and a host of Asian-African nations today pressed one of the bitterest attacks on Western colonial powers in U. N. history.

Colonialism was under simultaneous fire in the 103-nation General Assembly and two of its main committees. However, there was no attack on Communist domination of subject countries to which most of the Asians and Africans turn a blind eye.

In the General Assembly debate got under way on proposals to carry out the United Nations' 1960 declaration against colonialism. The Soviet Union denounced the United States and Britain as the main colonial powers barring freedom for millions of people. The United States countered that the U. S. S. R. was using colonialism as a pretext for a propaganda attack on the West.

In the Trusteeship Committee a parade of Communist, Asian and African countries blasted Portugal for the way it runs its overseas territories.

In the special Political Committee, nation after nation bitterly assailed South Africa's white supremacist policy and pointed to it as an outgrowth of the colonial system.

Colonialism also was probably in for another going-over in the main Political Committee, which opened debate on an Asian-African resolution demanding that all weapons and all foreign bases on the continent be liquidated.

With the powerful 49-nation Asian-African group supported down the line on colonialism by the Soviet bloc and a number of other nations, most of the resolutions against colonial practices were virtually certain to win approval.

S. G. Lapin, foreign minister of the Russian Republic, charged in the assembly that U. S. monopolies "take $20 billion a year profits from the new countries and worm their way in to force out the old colonizers."

Sicily is 150 miles from Bizerte; Rome is 350 miles distant.

Adenauer No Longer Reich 'Strong Man'

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The difference between the ideal and the real has hit West German Chancellor Adenauer with brutal force.

In April, when the 85-year-old Adenauer last came here to get acquainted with President Kennedy, he was the German strong man.

At their meeting's end he and Kennedy said the problem of a divided Germany can be handled only on the basis of self-determination by the German people.

The two leaders said they were speaking specifically of the problem of a divided Berlin, as well as the country as a whole.

This was an idea which the United States helped Adenauer keep alive for years. But it was unreal, and now more so than then.

Premier Khrushchev held Communist East Germany and East Berlin. And he wasn't going to yield or lose either or both to the West.

Now Adenauer is no longer the strongman. In West Germany's September elections Adenauer's Christian Democratic party lost its absolute majority in Parliament.

The September defeat meant the Christian Democrats had to make a deal with the minority Free Democrats to run the show and re-elect Adenauer.

They dickered seven weeks and Tuesday finally made it when Parliament once again chose Adenauer chancellor. But he barely squeaked through. He paid a price.

He granted the Free Democrats five ministers' jobs in his 18-member Cabinet. Worse for him:

he agreed if elected to resign before his term's end in 1965.

Tuesday it was announced he will come here again. Nov. 20-21, to confer with Kennedy. This time he comes as a chancellor near the end of his road.

Now any talk of self-determination for East Germany, or East Berlin, or reunification with West Germany, will be even more unreal than in April.

Since Adenauer's last visit Khrushchev not only has made it plain he won't yield an inch on East Germany or East Berlin but is putting heat on West Berlin.

Any talk this time by Kennedy and Adenauer about self-determination will be strictly dream talk.

The West showed how little stomach it had for a test on East Germany or East Berlin when it let the Communists wall off East Berlin without trying to remove a stone.

But there is a pressing reality the two men will have to discuss: what kind of deal they can make, and how, with Khrushchev on

Cotton Bowl Pushed for an Opponent

By HAROLD RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cotton Bowl will have to compete with the Rose Bowl as well as the Sugar, Gator and Orange Bowl for a visiting team this year.

For the Rose Bowl now is in the same category as the other bowls—a Pacific Coast member of the Athletic Association of Western Universities will be the host but a team from anywhere in the nation may be selected as the visitor. No longer is there a Big Ten hookup.

Thus Mississippi or Alabama or some other school could be picked for the Rose Bowl.

But the Cotton Bowl will come out all right. It is the only bowl game that is operated by a college conference and is entirely a college project. There are some 31 directors plus ex-officio directors from the past presidents. The members of the Southwest Conference furnish 24 of the directors. Six are from the custodian committee and the secretary of the Southwest Conference. Howard Grubbs, is a director. This is can be seen that the conference controls the Cotton Bowl.

Income from the Cotton Bowl runs close to $500,000 a year. It is divided this way:

Seven per cent of the gate receipts after taxes and of the revenue from television, radio, concessions and programs go to the State Fair of Texas, owner of the bowl, to pay on stadium indebtedness.

The remaining 93 per cent is divided thusly: 39 per cent to each competing team, 22 per cent to be retained by the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association for expenses. But any money not needed from the 22 per cent is distributed to the members of the Southwest Conference. The Cotton Bowl operates as a non-profit organization.

The conference member that plays in the bowl is permitted to keep $60,000 of its share of the receipts. It also gets $7.50 per mile travel allowance—one way. Suppose Texas Christian plays in the Cotton Bowl. It gets $7.50 per mile for 30 miles—that's the distance between Fort Smith and Dallas.

The remainder of the host team's share is distributed back to the conference with the host team also getting an eighth of it.

The 1961 Cotton Bowl game netted $341,722.24 from gate receipts after taxes, radio and television paid $125,000 and the concessions and programs brought in $10,922.16. That's a total of $477,644.40. Arkansas the host team in the Cotton Bowl, got $173,863.78 but could keep only $62,500 of it ($60,000 plus travel allowance). The other $112,000 went to the eight members of the conference. That was approximately $16,500 up with $79,000 and the other per school. Thus Arkansas would seven members of the conference each got $16,500.

The members of the conference also received about $20,000 from the balance left from the Cotton Bowl's 22 per cent. The Cotton Bowl operation—it has a reserve fund of about $100,000 built up.

The State Fair of Texas is paid about $30,000 a year as rental on the stadium. There is a sliding scale—15 per cent for $100,000 then the percentage diminishes. Also, the fact that the seven per cent

West Berlin.

Adenauer, like France's President Charles de Gaulle, has been all for delaying negotiations with the Russians. They haven't come up with solutions. But there will have to be solutions.

Khrushchev, without any more expense than threat, bluster, bomb-throwing and demands, at this moment apparently has the Allies split and confused on how to cope with him on Berlin.

Alan Ladd Loses Tax Refund Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Alan Ladd has lost his suit against the government for a refund of $65,578 on his 1954 federal income tax.

Ladd claimed that his income from a 1954 British movie was not taxable and that the government should refund the money.

Tuesday Federal Judge Harry C. Westover upheld the government's contention that foreign income is limited by the tax laws to an exemption of $3,173, which Ladd already had received.

Jury Involves Court and City

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Alonso Smith Jr., asked to be excused from jury duty because he had to work.

"The boss man said I had to work or there wouldn't be any place for me to work," Smith said Tuesday.

"Well, then, maybe we can straighten your boss man out," said Judge Carl Durance. "Who do you work for?"

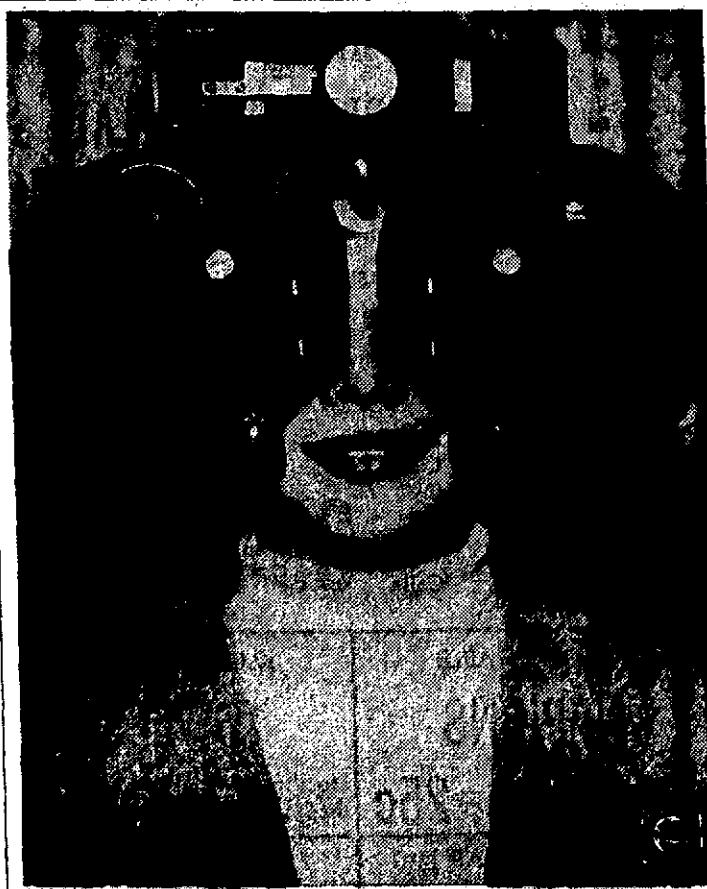

"The city," said Smith. Durance said he would talk to Mayor Julian Lane about the situation.

Arkansas Cotton Up by 90,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Agriculture Department today predicted an Arkansas cotton crop 90,000 bales bigger than it forecast a month ago.

The new estimate is for a 1,450,000-bale crop, based on an average expected yield of 514 pounds per acre.

Last month the department forecast a crop of 1,360,000 bales on an average yield of 482 pounds per acre.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $320,000 to Arkansas Tech College of Russellville, Ark., was announced Tuesday by the Community Facilities Administration which said Tech would use the money to build housing for 22 student families.

Telegram Brings Her Stark Truth

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Our 18-year-old daughter's boy friend will soon have squatter's rights on our home. They work in the same office so see each other all day. As if that weren't enough, he's here every night, sitting like a bump on a log.

My husband works hard and when he comes home, enjoys watching Westerns on TV. The goof our daughter's fallen for likes baseball and football. So that's what we get!

He openly says he doesn't intend to marry until he's 30. Since he's only 21 that means nine years of torture, unless we can talk our daughter out of this madness. We read the riot act last evening after enduring two hours' re-hashed sports on TV. He stalked off and our daughter went to bed in tears.

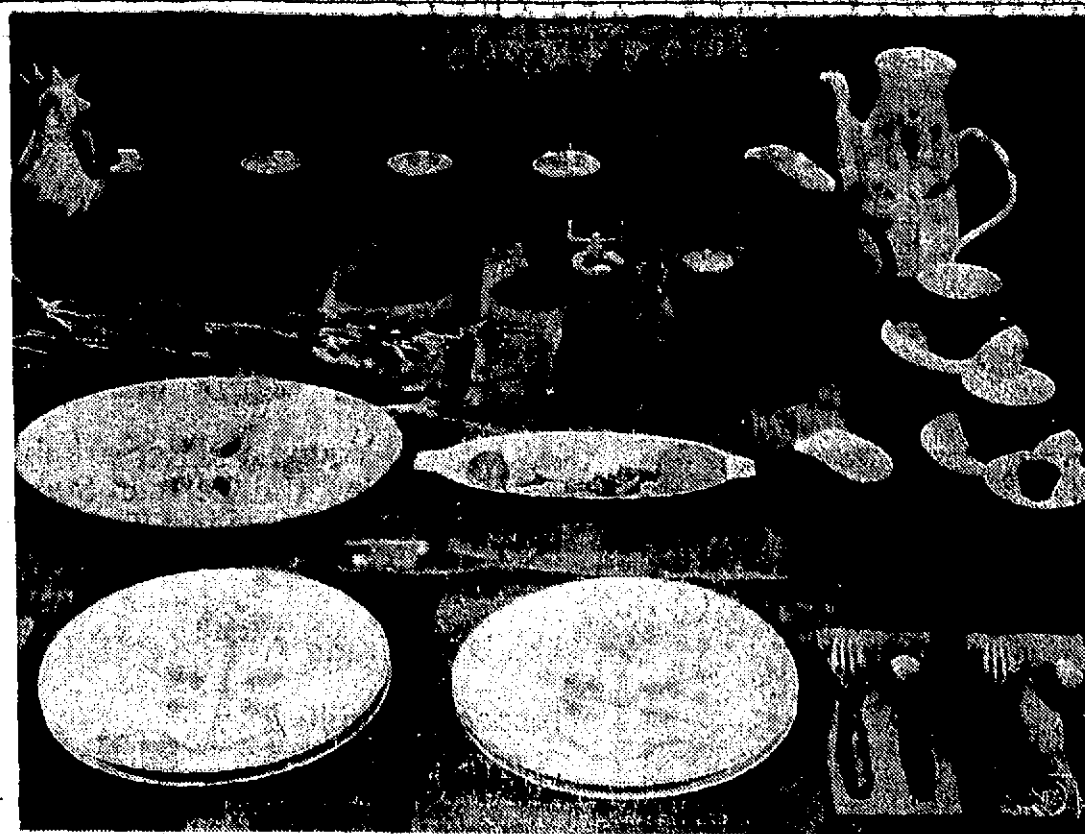

We were a happy family until this character came along. He is the first fellow our daughter really went with. She's a good girl and we've never had any trouble with her till now. Our four other children are no problem. My husband and I couldn't sleep last night for worrying about this no-good who upsets our daughter so that she can't eat or sleep. When my husband suggested this morning that she limit his visits to three nights a week, she left without eating her breakfast. Are we being unreasonable, or old-fashioned? —Please Help.

Dear Please Help: The clue to your problem lies in one sentence of your letter: "He's the first fellow our daughter went with." This boy has become an obsession with your girl because she has no yardstick to measure him by. Surround her with other boys. As a rule I'm opposed to matchmaking mothers but—this is an exception. Query friends, relatives and your husband's business associates. Get them to help you and your husband show this fellow up for what he is, by introducing your daughter to the really fine boys of town. Buy her some new party clothes. Give her a whirl. Should she still pine for the oaf, ship her off, if only for weekends. Propinquity is a factor.

Dear Helen: I love my husband and he loves me but you'd never think it to hear us fighting. We've been married just a year. Before, he was all for waiting on me. Now, I do the waiting on him. At 23, he's one great big baby, thanks to his mother who used to hand him everything on a silver platter. She didn't have to work, I do.

When I can't give him the attention he demands, he flies into a tantrum. This in spite of the housework he knows I must do. At 10 p.m. when I drop in a chair for a glance at the newspaper, the nagging begins. "When are you coming to bed? I can't sleep with the lights on." Our bedroom is at one end of the house, the living room at the other. If I don't answer he sulks, lapses into moody silence, then announces he's going home to mother. You'd think I was the husband and he the wife! Five times I've persuaded him to unpack and think it over. When we do make up he's glad I stopped him from leaving. But, a month later, he does the same thing all over again. What can be done?—A

Dear A.: First understand the problem: your husband is trying to assert himself as a man. Never having grown up, he gets attention by the only means he knows, tantrums. Those fights aren't helping any. The sulks, moodiness and stubborn silences are symptomatic of arrested development. Figuratively speaking, he's never been weaned. Is this mother nearby? If so, move far away, to another town, if necessary. You and he must learn to sense another's feelings and compromise instead of flare up in anger. At first, you'll probably carry the ball. Be patient. He'll eventually follow. Remember, the ideal wife is a combination mother, sweetheart

Fighting LA Fire Costs 3 Millions

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The City Council estimates the cost of fighting the two mammoth fires in the Santa Monica Mountains at more than $3 million.

Losses in private property have been estimated in excess of $15 million—not including furnishings and personal effects.

More than a dozen planes have doused "hot spots" with the fire-retarding chemical known as borate. Authorities say the bombers are invaluable in extinguishing flames in otherwise inaccessible areas.

Investigators have not determined whether the fire outbreak resulted from accident, arson or spontaneous combustion of tinder-dry brush.

The flames destroyed the Bel-Air home of Dr. Willard F. Libby, Nobel Prize-winning scientist and UCLA professor. The Libbys evacuated their home Monday, returned Tuesday and found nothing but rubble. It was at this home that Dr. Libby built a fallout shelter for $30, consisting mainly of sandbags and timbers. The fire left the shelter shrouded in ashes, but otherwise intact.

The Santa Monica Mountains run 10 miles north and west of Los Angeles, separating the downtown and Hollywood area from the San Fernando Valley to the north.

Stars and movie executives have lived for three decades in the area known as the Hollywood Hills. The Hollywood Hills are dotted with scenic canyons—Benedict, Laurel, Coldwater, Beverly Glen, Rustic, Mandeville, Laurel Canyon was slightly scorched, Benedict and Coldwater virtually unscathed. The others were heavily damaged.

TV actor Richard Boone and bandleader Lawrence Welk spent all night Monday watering down the roofs of their homes. Both houses were saved.

Fred MacMurray had to evacuate his wife, former actress June Haver, and their two daughters from his home—but firemen managed to save most of the house. The actor was so grateful that he prepared dinner for the fire fighters Tuesday night.

'Defenders' Is Familiar TV Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The familiar ingredients of the television series are all there in the format of CBS' "The Defenders." There's the father-son team of dedicated lawyers, widower and bachelor. There are the weekly courtroom scenes. And there is, of course, the eternally fascinating peek into the lives of a different set of troubled people.

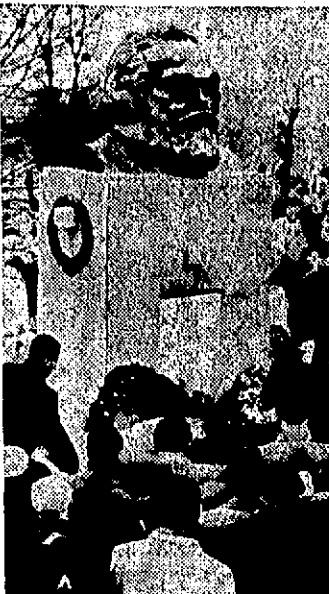

Last Saturday, "The Defenders" semblance to the average TV series stops abruptly. What makes the difference is Reginald Rose, a highly respected TV writer who fearlessly tackles controversial themes. He serves as the series' script editor and, often, as its writer.

Last Saturday, "The Defenders" started down a well-trodden path: the tipsy, spoiled girl whose car strikes a child at an intersection. The child is rushed to the hospital and emergency surgery is ordered. You can almost finish the usual plot yourself, including the final scene, with the smiling child on his way to recovery.

But in "The Defenders" the child died. The story itself was primarily concerned with the boy's parents, whose religious beliefs forbade both blood transfusions and surgery—a touchy TV subject.

Other episodes have taken on such question a mongolism and mercy-killing and unwed parents. Future shows will deal with a miscarriage of justice, abortion, a child rapist, and a consideration of bribery of college athletes—who are going to school on scholarships awarded for game-playing skills rather than scholarship. "Many of these shows," said Rose, "are really morality shows. We're attempting to deal with the law realistically because we feel that the courtroom drama lies here. Other courtroom dramas are glamorized. We're trying to get to the real motives of real people."

MARX'S GRAVE SAFE—If ever the Communists should decide to downgrade their Red hero, Karl Marx, they'll find it difficult to hide away his grave as they did with that of Joseph Stalin. Marx is buried in London's Highgate Cemetery where the memorial to Marx, shown above, was unveiled in 1933.

Gophers Up to Big Play—and Win

By JIM ROGERS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Ability to make the big play when the chance comes.

That sums up the success story of the Minnesota football team, author of Saturday's 13-0 upset of top-ranked Michigan State.

"We play a methodical type of game which is not very interesting to the spectator," says Gopher Coach Murray Warmath. "We concentrate on trying to take the mistakes out of football—and then let our opponents beat themselves by making a mistake or two."

Rival coaches, aghast over the Michigan State defeat, agreed that Minnesota's game is sometimes methodical and unimaginative. Some add the word lucky, too. They admit their mistakes, point to some Gopher errors and cite injuries as factors. But seldom do they say it was because Minnesota has a better team.

An expert watching Minnesota for the first time Saturday compared the Gophers with boxer Tiger Jones, saying, "It doesn't look like he is winning until you start counting up the points in the sixth round."

Against Michigan State Minnesota came up five times with a vital play.

"We like to kick on third down, kick off instead of receive and stick to a running attack as much as possible, mainly to place the pressure on the other team," Warmath explained. "We figure if the opposition has the ball deep in its own territory it is more likely to make a harmful error."

"We play the percentages a great deal and sometimes shock the fans with our conservatism, but it is all for a definite purpose. You might say we play a defensive ball game."

The fans didn't like Warmath's style of football several years ago. They love it now.
